

How to join the Med Youth network

What is the Med Youth network?

Med Youth is an informal network that brings together more than 250 committed young people in 17 countries around the Mediterranean. It is open to all young Mediterranean. They are committed to defending equality between all, solidarity and social justice in their territories. It creates bridges between countries in order to build common solutions to the serious current challenges, for a future of peace in the Mediterranean. It was launched in 2015 and is supported by the REF – Réseau Euromed France (www.euromed-france.org), a platform that brings together French civil society organizations sharing the same desire to work with all countries around the Mediterranean for a more just, democratic and inclusive space.

For more information: www.jeunessesmed.org

Why join the network?

Being part of this network will allow you to connect with the youth of the region with whom you share common values and challenges, to give visibility to your actions and to receive the news of the network and its activities, calls for applications for the annual meetings held in person in one of the Mediterranean cities, and calls for micro-projects.

How to join the Med Youth network?

In order to be part of the network you must:

- Be a young woman or man aged between 18 and 35 years,
- Come from one of the following countries: Algeria, Cyprus, Egypt, Spain, France, Greece, Italy, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Malta, Morocco, Palestine, Portugal, Syria, Tunisia, Turkey.
- Be engaged in the civil society through a non-profit organization or a personal project,
- Have participated in at least one activity of the network (a webinar, an annual meeting...).

Do you meet these requirements? All you need to do is fill this form:
<https://forms.gle/COpBykPnZ4sAk46T7>

NB : If you wish to join the network through an organization, you will be asked to have a letter signed from its side.

The requests for adhesion will be studied by the REF team and validated by the steering committee of the Med Youth Network. The adherents will need to sign the values chart of the Med Youth network.

